

Now Scheduling Lectures on Business Ethics & Corporate Social Responsibility

CHRISTOS PAPOUTSY

Business Executive • Ethicist • Author • Lecturer • Philanthropist • Composer, Director, Musician • Mediator • Helleniccomserve.com (Business Arena)

"Horatio Alger could have written this rags to riches story about a management buyout requiring nerve and diplomacy."

Business NH Magazine

Mr. Papoutsy began his career and company in electronics at Hollis Automation in a garage with four employees. Under his leadership, Hollis and later Cooper Electronics, specializing in packaging electronics equipment, grew to become a world leader in the electronics industry with sales in excess of 200 million dollars. In 1988 Mr. Papoutsy divested himself of his holdings of Cooper Electronics, subsequently becoming a partner in a major Boston Venture Capital Company. A major philanthropist, he then formed a number of charitable foundations and recently endowed a chair in Ethics at Southern New Hampshire University.

The Papoutsy Distinguished Chair in Ethics at Southern New Hampshire University

SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE UNIVERSITY

The Distinguished Chair in Ethics was established to promote and enhance awareness of ethics in personal and professional settings for students and community audiences.
www.snhu.edu

For his accomplishments, Papoutsy has received many awards, including Citizen of the Year Award, New Hampshire Patron of the Arts Award, E-Award "Excellence in Exporting", Pericles Award, Medal of St. Paul, Arete Award from The Greek Institute of Boston, and Honorary Doctor of Law Degree from New Hampshire College (Southern New Hampshire University).

"...A real world perspective that helped demonstrate the practical applications of what we teach our students."

Whittemore School of Business & Economics

As a speaker, Papoutsy prefers to participate with his audience as much as possible. His Dynamic multi-media presentations provide students, faculty and management executives with a real world perspective calling upon real life internal business experiences.

"Your address as the keynote speaker in Athens was extremely rewarding, and it had a decisive effect on our conference participants and assisted in meeting the aim of our conference - to further build CSR awareness and encourage more Greek companies to incorporate social responsibility practices."

The American-Hellenic Chamber of Athens, Greece

Mr. Papoutsy has lectured at the University of New Hampshire, The Whittemore School of Business & Economics, Daniel Webster College, New Hampshire College, The NH Women's Business Center, The NH Trial Bar Association, The Palmer Venture Capital Group (Boston, MA), as well as numerous international forums in Europe and Asia.

"You make a convincing case that the pursuit of eudaimonia leads a man to not only prosper but to strengthen his community as well."

John Silber, Boston University

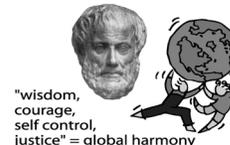

Personal Participation is the cornerstone of all the endeavors of Mr. Papoutsy, including charitable activities. "Only by actively participating, he believes, can we all ensure the health, dignity, freedom, and creativity of our Society."

*"I am most grateful to you for creating the Papoutsy Seminar...
...You've planted entrepreneurial seeds that will grow and flourish."*

Women's Entrepreneurial Seminar

SUGGESTED TOPICS - LECTURES & POWERPOINT PRESENTATIONS

"EUDAIMONIA"

BUSINESS ETHICS AND CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- Is Moral Capitalism Possible?
- A Company of Citizens "Human Capital"
- Ethics & Earning, What is Moral?
- What if Aristotle Ran your Company?
- Global Corruption
- Can Ethics be Mandated? Codes of Ethics, Business Principles, Laws & Regulations, Oversight, Transparency?
- Measuring Global Opacity?
- Socially Responsible Investing, Public Stocks & Mutual Funds
- Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics
- Can Business Ethics be Taught?
- Institutionalization, The Professional Board of Directors
- Economic Freedom & Corporate Social Responsibility
- Sound Business Practices & Procedures
- Restoring Public Trust: Latest Laws & Regulations to Curb Corporate Corruption
- What is a Corporate Socially Responsible Business, & What Do They Need to Do?
- The Five Forms of Capitals that Form the Foundation for Corporate Socially Responsible Business

OTHER BUSINESS LECTURES AND PRESENTATIONS

- Entrepreneurship & Ethics Equals Success
- Harvesting the Entrepreneurial Olive Tree
- Globalized Commercial Economy
- Where did the Seven Trillion Dollars go?
- How to Grow World Economics
- Globalization & the Ancient Olive Tree
- The Business Planner
- Marketing
- Industry Life Cycle
- The Three C's of Business Planning

MEDIATION & ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOURCES

- Alternative Dispute Resolution (saves money for business & attorneys)
- Selecting Cases for Mediation
- Mediation in the Construction Industry

Foundation Lecture Series • Christos Papoutsy

Post Office Box 710 • Rye Beach, NH 03871, U.S.A. • 603.379.8140 • fax 603.379.8141

Email: PapcoHolding@papcoholdings.org • website: www.HellenicComServe.com (Business Arena)

PAPOUTSY FOUNDATION LECTURE SERIES IN BUSINESS ETHICS AND CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The Christos and Mary Papoutsy Foundation is pleased to announce that a new collection of presentations, focusing on business ethics and corporate social responsibility will launch its season of free public service lectures. Offered by Christos Papoutsy, an ethicist, author, and former business executive in the electronics industry, these new lectures address contemporary issues in the business arena.

Equally suitable for small classrooms or larger audiences, this new collection of lectures will run from 45-60 minutes. Using a combination of mastery-style delivery with powerpoint presentation and question-and-answer techniques, Mr. Papoutsy shares his extensive real-world experiences. His unique background enables him to blend business theory with practice, while offering clarifying insight about the decision-making process among business administrators and entrepreneurs. Moreover, his experience in developing and delivering an award-winning series of free seminars for women entrepreneurs in New England has earned him a solid reputation for reaching across age, gender, and ethnicity barriers to democratize the field of business.

New Lecture Series in Business Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility

Is Moral Capitalism Possible? • A Company of Citizens “Human Capital” • Ethics and Earning, What is Moral? • What if Aristotle Ran your Company? Global Corruption • Can Ethics be Mandated? Codes of Ethics, Business Principles, Laws and Regulations, Oversight, Transparency? • Measuring Global Opacity? • Socially Responsible Investing, Public Stocks and Mutual Funds • Aristotle’s Nicomachean Ethics • Can Business Ethics be Taught? Institutionalization, The Professional Board of Directors • Economic Freedom and Corporate Social Responsibility • Sound Business Practices and Procedures • Restoring Public Trust: Latest Laws and Regulations to Curb Corporate Corruption • What is a Corporate Socially Responsible Business, and What Do They Need to Do? • The Five Forms of Capitals that Form the Foundation for Corporate Socially Responsible Business

The Foundation in Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility was established to promote and enhance awareness of ethics in personal and professional settings for students and community audiences. Through teaching, community lectures, and conferences, all audiences will be assisted in understanding and applying lessons taught by current and classical ethicists to twentieth century settings. Special emphasis will be placed upon the works of ancient Greek writers and intellectuals whose teachings have shaped the history of Western civilization from antiquity until the present.

Foundation Lecture Series • Christos Papoutsy

Post Office Box 710 • Rye Beach, NH 03871, U.S.A. • 603.379.8140 • fax 603.379.8141

Email: PapcoHolding@papcoholdings.org • website: www.HellenicComServe.com (business arena)